IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Payment of tax

You must pay the amount shown on the front of this notice by the due date even if you have lodged a private ruling application, objection or amendment request. Interest charges will apply if you do not pay by the due date. If you cannot pay your tax on time, phone us on the numbers listed below to discuss your situation.

Date for payment of other amounts

The date for payment shown on this notice refers only to the balance of this assessment. If you owe us other amounts, the dates for payment of those amounts remain as previously notified.

If you disagree with your assessment

If you think this assessment is wrong, check all the details on this notice with those on your tax return. If you think there is a problem, please phone us on the numbers listed below. You can write to us and object to the assessment if you still disagree with it. Objection forms and information about how to lodge an objection are available from our website at www.ato.gov.au under 'Objections, amendments, reviews', then 'Lodging an objection' or by phoning the numbers listed below. If you disagree with our decision on your objection you can apply for an independent, external review. When we give you our decision we will let you know if you can apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for a review or appeal to the Federal Court.

We may amend your assessment

The law gives us time to review information you have given us. Generally, we have two years from the date of the income tax assessment, but in some cases we have longer. If we find the information you provided was not correct we may amend this assessment. More information is available at www.ato.gov.au/notices

Record keeping

You must keep the records, receipts and other documentation you have used to prepare your return. Generally you need to keep them for five years. More information about record keeping is available at www.ato.gov.au/notices

Keeping this notice of assessment for future reference

You should keep this notice as part of your taxation records as you may be asked to provide details from it when phoning us. This notice also contains a reference number required for lodging a future income tax return online.

Protecting your privacy when you phone us

If you phone us we need to know we are talking to the correct person before providing account information. We will ask you for details only you, or your authorised representative, would know. It will be helpful if you have your tax file number or Australian business number and a copy of this notice ready when you phone us.

Explanation of terms used in your notice of assessment

Tax on taxable income

We calculate the amount of tax you pay on your taxable income. We work it out based on the information in your tax return. This amount may be nil.

PAYG credits and other entitlements

Includes any credits or interest entitlements that have been taken into account in working out your refund or amount owing. An example of these credits is any tax that was deducted by your employer or bank from payments they made to you during the financial year.
